

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

OCTOBER 16, 2009

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH OCTOBER 14, 2009

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that an incident report was distributed on that offense.

Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS

COUNTYWIDE

JEWELRY THEFTS INCREASE

* Fairfax County Police have seen an increase in jewelry thefts in the Sully, Reston, and Fair Oaks Districts over the last few months. Overall burglaries in those areas have dropped by 21%; however, the increase is found in the type of property being stolen particularly jewelry. Detectives are attributing these thefts to the recent increase in value of all precious metals, including gold, silver, and platinum. Below are some tips to keep your gems safe:

- Always call police if you see people going door to door acting suspicious
- Keep all valuables out of sight
- Keep jewelry in a secure location
- Keep items made of precious metals secure
- Be mindful when discussing your valuables
- Document valuables with photos and serial numbers
- Always keep home and business entryways locked
- Always be aware of your surroundings

There was a 55% increase in burglaries involving stolen jewelry in those districts over the last year. Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

CRIME SOLVERS TIP LEADS TO ARREST

* Fairfax County Crime Solvers received an anonymous e-mail tip on the whereabouts of a wanted fugitive. The tip advised that Paul Rosinsky was at an address in Washington, D.C. Officers responded to 411 6th Street, Northeast, on Friday, October 2 and located Rosinsky. He was wanted for credit card larceny. Rosinsky is currently at the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center. Fairfax County Crime Solvers routinely posts wanted people, videos of suspects "caught in the action", and upcoming events. Please visit www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org and see if you may know anyone posted. Anyone with information about any crime is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS(8477), e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES(274637). A $100 to $1,000 cash reward will be paid for information that leads to an arrest. As always, callers never have to give their names or appear in court.

SOLICITATION OF PROSTITUTION/ARREST

Tysons Corner, Falls Church, Mount Vernon

* Detectives from the Street Crimes Unit of the Fairfax County Police Organized Crime and Narcotics Division along with several female undercover officers arrested 23 men for soliciting prostitution during a prostitution sting on Thursday, October 1. The operation took place at various locations in the Tysons Corner, Falls Church and Mount Vernon areas of the county. Some female officers, posing as escorts, were solicited online and made arrangements with a suspect to meet at a hotel. Other officers were approached directly outside hotels by men soliciting sex. All of the suspects were released on summonses for solicitation of prostitution. "Prostitution can attract more serious and potentially violent crimes to include narcotics violations, robberies and sexual assaults," states Sergeant Scott Delcore of the Street Crimes Unit. The following suspects were charged with one count of soliciting prostitution:

- Robert Hall, 39, of 315 Hillside Terrace, Landover, MD
- Francisco Gomez Flores, 31, of 10008 Portsmouth Road in Manassas
- James Lenandowski, 47, of 9028 Armendown Drive in Springfield
- Erick Gutierrez-Osorio, 20, of 3813 Burlingame Place in Alexandria
- Israel Casco Grandes, 33, of 5700 Norto Road in Alexandria
- Jose Contreras Castro, 47, of 4413 31st Street in Arlington
- Milton Santos Gonzales, 35, of 5626 Fargo Ave, Oxon Hill, MD
- Bonifacio Lemus Mendoza, 32, of 240 Cedar Lane #121 in Vienna
- Erick Castellon, 24, of 6300 Stonefence Court, Clinton, MD
- Ellsworth Johnson, 40, of 7012 Lawnwood Court in Fort Belvoir
- Ryan Hill, 20, of 619 S. Henry Street in Alexandria
- David Peter, 42, of 5841 Robeys Meadow Lane in Fairfax
- Patrick Colliton, 56, of 6528 Heather Brook Court in Mclean
- Ki Wong Nam, 47, of 6572 Kiernan Court in Alexandria

These suspects were charged with two counts of soliciting prostitution:

- Keith Cunningham, 39, of 5756 Village Green Drive in Alexandria

UPDATE: INDECENT LIBERTIES WITH A CHILD BY A PERSON IN A CUSTODIAL OR SUPERVISORY RELATIONSHIP/FAILURE TO APPEAR IN COURT

Gabrielle Way

14100

*John E. Hamilton failed to appear for a scheduled court date on Wednesday, October 7. As a result, a bench warrant has been issued for his arrest and nationwide extradition has been authorized. Detectives are asking for the public's assistance in locating Hamilton, 37, of 14120 Gabrielle Way in Centreville, Virginia. An investigation was launched in late February of this year that determined Hamilton engaged in inappropriate sexual conduct with him periodically, from March through July of 1997. One incident occurred in the parking lot of Carl Sandburg

Middle School, 8428 Fort Hunt Road. Another took place at Hamilton's home at that time, in the 6600 block of Wakefield Drive in the Belle View area. Hamilton was a little league baseball coach for the Fort Hunt Youth Athletic Association at that time. Anyone with information is asked to call Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS (8477), e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637. You may also call Detective J. Hinson at 703-246-7523 or the Fairfax County Police Department at 703-691-2131.

ASSAULT/DRUNK IN PUBLIC/ARREST

Richmond Highway

8200

Police charged a man for assaulting a woman at the Southern Motel, located at 8257 Richmond Highway, on Friday, October 9. An investigation determined around 10:21 a.m., the man propositioned the woman. She refused and the suspect allegedly grabbed her, hit her in the face and bit her on the arm, then fled on foot. Officers located him walking nearby and arrested him. William Roseboro III, 22, of 8420 Richmond Highway #59 in Alexandria, was transported to the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center and charged with assault and drunk in public. The victim declined medical attention.

BANK ROBBERY

6600

* On Saturday, October 10, shortly after 1030 a.m., a 21-year-old female teller at the TD Bank located at 6615 Richmond Highway, was robbed. A lone man entered the bank and passed a note demanding money. The teller handed over an undisclosed amount of cash and was not injured. The suspect left the bank and was last seen headed north on Richmond Highway in a dark-colored SUV. He was described as black, late 20s to early 30s. He was approximately 6 feet 4 inches tall and weighed about 210 pounds, with an athletic build. He was also described as clean-shaven. He was wearing a dark knit cap a dark, warm-up suit, and dark sneakers. Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

ROBBERY

Pelican Place

3200

Police responded to a robbery on Saturday, October 10 around 10 p.m. The victim, a 34-year-old woman, was walking with her son on a path in the 3200 block of Pelican Place when a man approached her from behind, punched her and took her purse. The suspect fled on foot and the victim gave chase but lost sight of him near Richmond Highway and Belford Drive. A woman sitting on the stairs along the path was seen fleeing with the suspect. The suspect was described as black, about 22 years old. He was about 5 feet 10 inches tall, 180 pounds and was wearing a black sweat shirt and blue jeans. The woman was described as white, about 20 years old. She was approximately 5 feet 3 inches tall, 130 pounds and wore a yellow jacket and black pants.

CARNAL KNOWLEDGE

Republic Court

7500

On Monday, October 12, around 10:30 a.m., a man was discovered allegedly having sex with a 14-year-old female inside a vacant apartment located in the 7500 block of Republic Court. The suspect attempted to flee but was caught a short distance away by patrol officers. Oscar Ferrufino, 34, of no fixed address, was taken to the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center and charged with one count of carnal knowledge.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

Parrot Place

7800

Police responded to the 7800 block of Parrot Place around 4 p.m. on Wednesday, October 14 for an attempted robbery. An investigation determined the victim, a 27-year-old woman, was walking along Sparrow Drive around 1 p.m. and noticed a man following her. When she arrived at a home on Parrot Place, the man grabbed her and her purse fell to the ground. The suspect rummaged through the purse and fled on foot without taking anything. He was described as black, between 18 and 20 years old. He was about 5 feet 6 inches tall and 140 pounds, with black hair and blue eyes. He wore a black hat, black hoodie, dark pants and a black backpack. The victim did not require medical attention.

MCLEAN DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 3)CRIME SOLVERS CASE OF THE WEEK: STOLEN AUTO

Leesburg Pike

8000

* Fairfax County Crime Solvers is asking for the public's assistance in identifying the man responsible for stealing a car from a gas station. Just before 10 p.m. on Monday, October 5, the 27-year-old owner of a 1998 Chevrolet Camaro pulled into the Exxon gas station at 8021 Leesburg Pike. He left his vehicle unattended at a gas pump with the keys in the ignition. Another man entered the vehicle and drove away. Detectives have obtained surveillance video of the suspect and are hoping someone will recognize him. He was seen walking around the gas station and looking into vehicles as early as 9:40 p.m. that evening. The 1998 Chevy Camaro convertible is a relatively uncommon vehicle. This vehicle is silver in color with a black, cloth top, bearing Virginia license plate number YJM-2284. The suspect was described as black, in his late teens to early 20s. He was about 5 feet 9 inches tall and was wearing a red hoodie and blue jeans.

Surveillance video of the suspect can be viewed at: <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/police/news-releases/2009/video/100509StoVehTheftFace.avi>. Anyone with information on the stolen vehicle or the suspect is asked to contact Fairfax County Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637. A $1,000 cash reward will be paid for information that leads to an arrest and indictment. As always, callers never have to give their names or appear in court.

ROBBERY

Wickersham Way

2800

Two men robbed a 38-year-old man in the 2800 block of Wickersham Way on Tuesday, October 13. The victim was walking behind a building around 2:45 a.m. when he saw two men standing near the corner of the building. One of them displayed a knife and demanded money from the victim. The victim refused and the suspect grabbed him while the other suspect took his wallet and removed a small amount of cash. The suspects fled on foot. They were described as black, in their 20s. They were about 6 feet tall and 160 pounds. One wore a dark, hooded sweat shirt and blue jeans. The other suspect wore a dark sweat shirt, dark stocking hat and jeans. The victim did not require medical attention.

BURGLARY/ARREST

Balliett Court

2800

A 14-year-old boy was arrested for burglary on Wednesday, October 14. A 47-year-old woman returned to her home in the 2800 block of Balliett Court around 2:50 p.m. and saw someone inside the house run out. Police responded and located the suspect nearby. An investigation determined he used a stolen key to enter the home and stole an undisclosed amount of cash. The teenager was released to a family member and petitions for burglary and grand larceny will be obtained.

MASON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 4)

No major incidents reported.

RESTON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 5)UPDATE: SEXUAL ASSAULT/ARREST

Sunrise Valley Drive

12500

* A man was arrested for sexually assaulting a 19-year-old female near 12530 Sunrise Valley Drive on Monday, October 5. Around 4 p.m., the victim was with a man she met through an acquaintance. Near the commuter lot, the man convinced her to enter some nearby woods. Once inside the woods, the man sexually assaulted the victim. The suspect fled and the victim summoned police. The victim was transported to Inova Fairfax Hospital with minor injuries. Neither victim nor suspect were commuters. During the early morning of October 7, police arrested 28-year-old Mohamed Kaffi, of 1603 Beacon Tree Lane. Kaffi turned himself in at the Reston District Station after learning police were looking for him. He was transported to the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center and charged with Abduction with the intent to defile, and Rape.

UNLAWFUL ENTRY/DRUNK IN PUBLIC/ARREST

Thunder Chase Drive

12700

Police arrested a man who walked into a 39-year-old woman's home on Saturday, October 10. The victim was inside her home around 8:40 a.m. when her son told her that a man had walked into the living room. She went to the room and confronted the suspect, who fled on foot. Officers located the suspect nearby and an investigation determined the man entered through an unlocked door. Luis Ibanez, 21, of 610 Tapawingo Road in Vienna, was transported to the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center and charged with drunk in public and unlawful entry.

GRAND LARCENY

Market Street

11900

Four men walked into an Apple computer store, located at 11949 Market Street, and stole several laptop computers and cellular phones on Tuesday, October 13. They entered the store around 10:30 a.m., approached an area containing the electronic items, grabbed them and fled the store on foot. The suspects were described as black, in their early 20s, with a thin to average build. Two of them had black cornrows and the other two had short, black hair.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY/ARREST

Bennington Hollow Lane

1600

Two 14-year-old boys were arrested after allegedly attempting to get into a home in the 1600 block of Bennington Hollow Lane on Wednesday, October 14. A 70-year-old man was inside his home around 1:15 p.m. and heard a noise coming from the backyard. He looked out the window and saw two teenagers standing on his deck and in the yard. Police responded and apprehended the suspects nearby. They were released to their parents and charges are pending further investigation.

ANIMAL CONTROL DIVISION

Meadowlark Road 9600 (McLean District)
A woman was walking her three dogs on Tuesday, October 13 around 9 p.m. when they encountered a fox. The dogs, two German Shepherds and an Airedale, fought with the fox and killed it. Animal Control officers responded, collected the carcass and submitted it for rabies testing. The dogs were already on a 45-day quarantine from a previous encounter with a rabid raccoon.
